Oxford Preservation Trust Awards 2012

Another year has passed and we are delighted to enclose an invitation encouraging you to submit entries for the Oxford Preservation Trust Awards 2012.

The Awards are now in their 35th year and continue to recognise projects, large or small, which make a significant contribution to Oxford's built or natural environment. The success of these awards in 2011 was remarkable, and continues a tradition of appreciation for projects that ensure the heritage of our city continues to thrive. Further details of last years submissions can be found in the enclosed 2011 Awards brochure.

As part of the awards appraisal process all entries will be visited by our Panel of Judges and details of each successful project will be displayed at the popular autumn event, the Oxford Preservation Trust Awards Presentation evening. This event attracts a wide range of guests from across the public and private sector, Universities and town, as well as good local media coverage.

The deadline for applications is the 16 April 2012 and an entry form and further details can be found at <http://www.oxfordpreservation.org.uk/planning/awards.php>. Alternatively, please find attached an application form which you may return to us via email or post. To submit more than one entry please copy the attached form or download further copies from our website.

We look forward to receiving your entry.

Yours sincerely,

Debbie Dance
